

Understanding Anti-Asian Hate through a Shared Learning Community: Workshop Series for Asian American Parents

Click here to apply!

Date: 5/21, 6/4, 6/11, 6/18, 6/25 and 7/9 (6 sessions)

Time: Saturday 10AM-1PM

Location: Zoom (first session on 5/21 will be in-person)

This workshop series aims to

- Empower Asian American families to become advocates for an equitable and anti-racist public school system.
- Create a shared learning community of Asian American families in the NYC public school system, focused on understanding racism through the Asian American lens.

At the end of the workshop, you will

- Have a deeper understanding of our struggle and positions in the racial hierarchy.
- Be competent in an Asian American narrative in the public education landscape.
- Be able to bring in more Asian American families into the community
- Commit to continuing participation in the shared learning community.
- Receive a stipend

Join if you are...

- parents/grandparents/legal guardians of a child/children in public, non-charter K - 12 schools
- parents interested in leadership
- curious, open-minded and want to learn

Click here for FAQ

The application is due by Wednesday, May 11, 2022

More Question? Please contact Ada Lin, program coordinator at alin2@cacf.org

